Lactation and Breastfeeding Services

AABN offer services to support breastfeeding mothers by an International Board Certified Lactation Consultant and skilled Community Breastfeeding Peer Counselors. Soon as baby is born breastfeeding services and support can help mothers reach their goals and have breastfeeding success.

Hospital & In-Home Visits

AABN offers hospital and in-home visits to any breastfeeding mother enrolled in our program. Our trained Community Breastfeeding Peer Counselors and International Board Certified Lactation Consultant support breastfeeding families immediately after birth and in the comforts of their homes. For many moms knowing a familiar face will be there is reassuring.

Educational Sessions

AABN offers monthly Community Breastfeeding Gatherings (CBGs). The CBGs brings together pregnant and breastfeeding mothers with their family and love ones to learn how to have breastfeeding success. Led by certified lactation consultants, the sessions are held monthly and focus on a specific breastfeeding topic.

Father2Father Support session

AABN Father Peer Advocate leads separate sessions for fathers and men supporting breastfeeding during the CBGs. He also provides follow-up support after birth helping to answer questions and ease concerns.

Our Chat Room

Congratulations! Breastfeeding is going well but you have some questions about breastfeeding your 3 month old. You have come to the right place! The Our Chat Room is a support session for nursing and exclusively pumping moms who have questions, concerns and/or like to share tips for breastfeeding success. Registration is encouraged.

Healing Waters

A sacred space gathering for families who have experienced loss of a pregnancy at any stage, or death of a baby, up to 12 months of age. Families are welcome to attend monthly bereavement sessions lead by a trained facilitator and volunteer supporters who have shared experiences.

B.I.G. Sisters

B.I.G. Sisters attend a 4-hour training to promote, protect and sustain breastfeeding. In this capacity they serve to raise awareness, foster leadership and advocacy in maternal/infant health. B.I.G. stands for Breastfeeding Is Great!
